Wright Defeats Ware and Larned Wins From

Boston, July 26.-The best tennis yet seen this season on the Longwood courts was in the match to-day between Beals C. Wright and L. E. Ware for the honor of meeting W. A. Larned in the final round. Both men played brilliantly and although Ware was the choice of the talent before play began. Both men played a hard, fast game and their work at the net was magnificent. Wright lobbed a shade better and in general out-played Ware. The former got everything back and his volleying was terrific. Wright materially weakened his game through his anxiety to get to the net on his service, which cost him double faults frequently. To-day's match makes the third win for Wright over Ware this season, although in the two previous matches Ware did not show anywhere near matches Ware did not show anywhere near the form he did to-day. Larned had little difficulty in defeating Carleton and on Monday he will meet Wright in the finals.

In the Eastern doubles championship Ware and Wright finished up their match with Foster and Carleton, and to-morrow will meet Hobart and Larned in the semi-final round. Whitman continued to win in the handicap singles and will undoubtedly come through to the finals, notwithstanding his heavy handicap. Summaries:

WILKERSON HURT AGAIN. LITTLE JOCKET GETS ANOTHER FALL

sed, but He is Not Injured Se Severely as Was the Case at Aqueduct —Rec-hampton Defeats Waz Taper in Record Time—Cochran Rides Four Winners. Just as the growd came filing out of the gates

Just as the crewd came nime out of the gates of the Brighton Beach race track yesterday afternoon an ambulance was backed up to the door of the jockey's room. Six men lifted a stretcher with tenderness, and upon it lay a mere child, battered, bruised and half-unconscious. The boy was Gordon Wilkerson, the midget, who at Aqueduct last April was thrown from the horse Osman Digna and for several weeks afterward was battling for his young life at Seney Hospital. When Wilkerson recovered from that accident —and it was nearly two months before he was able to walk about—he declared that he would e in the saddle soon again. His half-brother. H. T. Griffin, who has the boy in his care, conented to let him ride a few weeks ago, and Wilkerson began to perform with the brilliancy that brought him into public notice last apring. The little fellow, though short of limb and by no means strong in physique, was pronounced too small to ride some time ago, but he was allowed to continue. His services were in demand, and his first mount yesterday was on Perry Belmont's Oread, in the third race. In the fourth race Wilkerson had the leg up on E. L. Graves's Merriment, a 100 to 1 shot. The horses had dashed into the stretch and Merriment was back in the ruck, though in the middle of the track. Whether the filly was bumped by Carmaid, as some of the other riders allege, or whether she crossed her legs, nobody seemed positive but the fact remains that she fell and Wilkerson went down with her in a heap. With a blind rush came Bella and April Shower right on top of the failen filly and boy.

It looked as if Bella jumped on Wilkerson with both fore feet. As it was, when the dust cloud cleared, the horse was running riderless after the others, and the boy was lying prone upon his face, motionless, and perhaps dead, the crowd thought. Men ran for the rail and the ambulance, ever ready for an emergency of this kind, was started up the track on the run. Surrounded by a crowd of stable boys and stern Pinkertons, the boy was still. His head was bathed in blood and the ashen hue of his face denoted death. As he was lifted gently into the ambulance and driven down past the silent army of spectators, even the women who bet big money and wear diamonds allowed their eves to fill with tears as they thought of the child who was so near death again. Hardvisaged gamblers turned away with the re-visaged gamblers turned away with the remark:

"Too bad. He was a good boy."

There was a rush to see the jockey as he was taken into the private room used by the riders. The regular physician at the track made a hasty examination and to the relief of those who waited for the news he said that Wilkerson's shoulder had been dislocated, that he had been severely bruised about the body and was in a state of collapse, but, he added, the boy would get well. Wilkerson regained consciousness in an hour and was taken to his half-brother's home. Soon after the jockey had been taken out of the public view, the band struck up a lively tune the bettors resumed their contest with the layers and the incident was forgotten in the wild whirl for money.

The most sensational race of the day, which incidentally proved that J. G. Follansbee's Roehampton, by Bathampton—Agnes Flash, comes pretty near being a star three-year-old, was the fifth event on the card, for three-year-olds and upward, at one mile and an eighth. Wateroure and Latson were with-odd, was the at the early and an experimental and and arther which left Wax Taper, Monarka and Ethies to fight it out with Rochampton. Mr. Foliansbee's colt was the favorite, of course, at 11 to 10, probably because he had won the last five races with comparative ease. His impost was 94 pounds and Cochran had the mount. Monarka, 1. C. McDowells crack of the comparative ase. His impost was 94 pounds and cochran had the mount. Monarka, 1. C. McDowells crack of 11 to 5, while Wax Taper, shouldering 100 pounds and ridden by O'Connor, was allowed to recede half a point in the betting. THE FORKS LOSS TO BOSTONS. MAKING

The result yesterday of the first clash in National League teams was a reduction of Pittsburg's lead. Although the Pirates started out with a big lead, St. Louis eventstarted out with a big lead, St. Louis event-ually beat them out, winning by heavy bat-ting. The Bostons crept up closer to the New Yorks, whom they beat by one run, and Chicago outplayed Cincinnati. Rain pre-vented the Philadelphia-Brooklyn game. In the American League Chicago beat Wash-ington, Boston worsted Milwaukee and Bal-timore vanguished Cleveland. The National timore vanquished Cleveland. The National League results and standing follow: Boston, 4; New York, 1.

ST. LOUIS, 12: PITTSBURG, 7.

ST. LOUIS, July 26.—The Cardinals took the first of the series from the Pirates by a score of 12 to 7.

Powell twirled for the home team and Phillippi lasted three innings for the visitors. Chesbro was sent in to twirl when Pittsburg had a flying start, scoring six runs in the first. After that they scored but one more. In the third there came near being a riot when Jack O'Connor struck Donoran and was promptly knocked down by young Murphy. Half a dozen policemen rushed to the plate and it was fully afteen minutes before order was restored and the same resumed. Attendance, 6,700. The score:

The great son of Robert McGregor, the "Demon of the Home Stretch," Cresceus, is now doubly a king of the trotting turf, for in a flight against time on the Cleveland track yesterday he snatched the laurels from The Abbot and set a new world's record. He was the fastest trotting stallion and by his performance of yesterday proved himself to be the fastest trotter in the world. George Ketcham, the young millionaire of Toledo, who bred, trained and drives Cresceus, rated him a great mile. He flew to the quarter pole in 30 seconds, a two-minute gait, and went the second quarter only one second slower, making the half in 1:01. On the third quarter he increased his speed and passed the three-quarter pole in 1:31½, making the third quarter in 30½ seconds.

Down the homestretch the determined chestnut lowered his head and dug out for the wire in his well-known, dogged way, reeling off the last quarter in 31 seconds, making the mile in the unprecedented time of 2:02½. It was on the same track last October that Creaceus took the stallion crown from Directum, 2:05½ and lowered the stallion record to 2:04, the time on that occasion by quarters being 0:31½, 1:01½, 1:32, 1:204. The Abbot's great mile on Sept 25, 1:209, when he dethroned the trotting queen, Alix, 2:03½, was rated by Ed Geers, the "Silent Man from Tennessee" as follows: first quarter, 0:31½; half, 1:02½; three-quarters 1:31½; mile, 2:03½.

over the recent disease which has affected the horses in this country. The matter was brought up in the House of Commons STRACUSE, July 26 .- Only two races were on the card for the last day of the meeting of the Kirk Driving Park Association. Both on July 11. Mr. Hanbury stated that "in answer to inquiries through the Foreign Office to the reported epidemic among horses in New York he had received the following telegram: "Mild and local epiwere split up and in both the favorites were beaten. I. T. Washburne was played to win the 2:22 pace. There was also quite a play the 2:22 pace. There was also quite a play on Aline, who won here at the first meeting. Nancy Roy captured the first two heats easily the favorite getting a poor drive from his namesake. Washburne, who is the owner of the horse, put Terrell behind the animal and the next heat the favorite won. Nancy Boy won the fourth heat by the smallest margin, but the Judges saw it differently and Washburne got the heat. Washburne made a break in the first half get the fifth mile, but recovered and was bearing down upon the favorite fast through the stretch when another break spoiled his chances of winning the race. Away was the favorite for the 2:27 trot, but was outstepped by Hilda King the first two heats. Hilda King made a break in the stretch the third heat and Away won. The latter got a chance for the fourth heat, but spoiled it by a break near the wire. The meeting was the most successful both from a horse-racing and financial standpoint held here in years. The horse as feem zootic laryngeal influenza prevalent in New York and Brooklyn. Horses for export to United Kingdom, which are chiefly drawn from Western and Middle States, appear to be unaffected. All horses are examined before shipment by Government inspectors, and as yet none are reported to have been rejected. They are kept in Government stock yards, and have little chance of infection. The local authorities at most of the principal ports were continuing to inspect imported horses as they arrived. At the port of London the board were taking steps to supplement the information obtained at the other principal ports by inspection on the part of their own officers. Upon the result of this inspection would depend the question whether there was sufficient evidence of disave to require further administrative action.

THE GREAT STALLION TROTS A MILE AT CLEVELAND IN 9.09 3-4.

CLEVELAND, July 26 .- All trotting records were smashed to-day, indeed thoroughly demolished, by the phenomenal mile of Cresceus. Even his owner, proud as he is of his charge and confident as he was that he Heavy showers in the morning gave the track such a scaking that it did not look for a while as if the programme could be gone on with, to say nothing of a recordbreaking time. The track dried out quickly lowever, and when the first heat was called about 2:50 o'clock it was in fair condition and improving rapidly. But even at 6:30 o'clock when the great stallion was started on his history-making trip, there were many

At this point the second prompter came into play. The wonderful trotter seemed to spurn their efforts, for with renewed energy he spured away and led them another quarter in 30% seconds, reaching the six furlongs pole in 1:81%. With a grand, courageous rush through the stretch, having only a word or two of encouragement from Ketcham and the patter of flying hoofs behind, the wonderful stallion came on as steady as ever a horse could go, dashing under the wire with no sign of faltering in 2:02%, thus trotting the last quarter in 31 seconds.

It was nothing less than a howling mob that greeted Ketcham and the new trotting king as they came to the stand. For ten minutes a perfect pandemonium reigned, Ketcham was almost dragged from his sulky and forced into the stand where the crowd demanded that he should make a speech, which he did.

Anaconda was an easy winner of the free-for-all pace. At no time did Coney show the great brush which distinguished his mile at Detroit. Going away the first heat the McKinney gelding's hoppies gave way and he went to a break, and at the three-quarters, after getting within striking distance, again went into the air. He went straight the second mile, but Anaconda held him safe at all points. Both miles were won in almost a jog.

For his suspicious driving of Riley B in the 2:07 pace on Tuesday, when he was taken out by the judges, Frank Erwin of Rich Hill, Nev., was to-day fined $300. An investigation is on foot and should the persons back of Erwin be uncarthed severe penalties will be meted out to them.

Just before the free-for-all pace to-day Coney, 2:02, was bought by H. T. Dykeman of White Plains, The price was private. Coney was bought by J. H. Bronson of New Haven last fall in New York for $4,100.

The reports as to the sale of the pacer Dan Patch are unfounded. He is still ewned by D. A. Messner, Jr., who at the Detroit meeting refused an offer of $10,000 for him. Summary of to-day's races:

When it is considered that the spring training season was very late and unpropitious Cresceus's performance yesterday is wonderful. It is well for Mr. Geers that he announced the inability of The Abbut to keep his engagement with Cresceus at the Brighton Beach meeting next month, before the son of Robert McGregor siliced the half second from his record, or he might have been charged with being frightened off. The new champion will be driven to beat his record of yesterday at the Seaside meeting Cresceus was foaled in 1894, by Robert McGregor, dam Mabel, damof Nigntingale, 2:10½, by Mambrino Howard. His granddam, Contention, was by Allie West.

BOSTON, July 26 .- What was a successful four days' meeting at Readville was brought to a close this afternoon. Mart Demarest, in the second heat and broke his left leg in two places. The accident was caused by the mare choking while coming down the backhard. The Best racing was between the trotters in the 2:25 class. Marion Wilkes was hardly picked to win, as she never had beaten 220, but Demarest brought her to the front in the last three heats, barely beating Handspring, the early favorite. in the fifth. In a trial against time Todd, a two-year-old by Bingen, trotted a half in 1:06; Fanella, Todd's dam, made a new record of 2:22½. Oglebay beat his former time of 2:30½ by seven and a quarter seconds. Buildefort, July 26.—Jack Bonner and Joe Waicott went fifteen rounds at the Park City Theatre to-night and Walcott got the decision, having fairly earned it. It was the second of Tom O'Rourke's events here and fully 1,200 spectators witnessed the contest. The men fought at catchweights, Bonner weighing 160 and the colored man 142. Fred Bullen was referee, Charlie Harvey announcer and Dan Shannon, the ex-baseball player, timekeeper. With Walcott were Mock Abler, Joe Gordon and Tom O'Rourke, and in Bonner's corner were Florrie Barnett, Pat Bonner and William Brennan. Walcott was in fine condition and from the start the fighting was very fast, the colored man rushing from his corner when the gong sounded and fighting viciously, evideatly looking for a knockout. Several millionaires intend building fine stables for their Speedway horses. Henry Allen Jacobs, the architect, has drawn plans for a $75,000 building at Eighth avenue and 141st street that will be used jointly for the horses of Kenneth M. Murchison and Archi-bald B. Gwathmey. Both are friends of Nathan Straus and their stable will be near Nathan Straus and their stable will be near the handsome one which the latter well-known road driver is soon going to have erected. Stables are being planned by Architect R. H. Hunt to be built on East Eighty-eighth street. Other expensive stables are being contemplated at a cost of from $75,000 to $250,000 each. J. B. Haggin intends to have his within easy distance of the Speedway, while others who are thinking of providing adequate accommodations for their fast trotters and vacers are C. K. G. Billings, W. H. Moore and D. G. Reid.

DUNKIRK. July 26.—The Lake Eric circuit races scheduled for to day were postponed until somorrow on account of a wet track caused by last night's rain.

LEXINGTON, July 26.—Bonita Belle, the noted brood mare lost by Richard Croker ia England while she was being transported to his stud, was bought of Col. W. S. Barnes here only a short time ago by Senator McCarren of Brooklyn for $12,500. Mr. Croker has three other mares at the Melbourne stud here.

During the delay at the post in the first race at Brighton yesterday Jockeys Burns and Shaw were fined $50 each for misconduct. In the fifth race Burns was set down for one day for pulling April Shower up. The stewards called Burns before them and told him that for another such offence he would be more severely disciplined.

LEXINGTON, July 26.—It has been discovered that the dam of Frank Van Meter's flying two-year old coil Coldstream is not May Dixen or Lady Dixon out of Reirrest by Virgil. The mare's pedigree is seriously in doubt and J. E. Delph has notined Major Foshall Dangerfield, who purchased her from him for James P. NEWS OF THE WHEELMEN. Taylor and Kramer to Meet at Manhattan Beach

To-day -Sunday Runs. For to-day the main attraction is at Manhattan Beach. Major Taylor, good as he is, has realized the extreme absurdity of attempting to jump precipitately from sprint racing to pace-following. His defeat by Nelson at his home city taught him a lesson. He has declined to meet Elkes at Manhattan Beach this afternoon, but will ride in the halfmile championship event of the Grand Circuit. In this race Taylor will meet Kramer and Copper and all of the best riders. The race will be run in heats with semi-finals, and as there are only two men admitted to semi-finals and finals in a championship races. This will be the event of the day, whoever wins. The card at the Beach track for this afternoon, however, is one of many features.

There is a fifty-mile race to be run between Elkes. Walthour, Ross and Moran, and although Elkes on his record would seem to have an easy victory in sight, Moran, the New England sensation, and Walthour are likely to give him a ride for the money. Ross at the distance, does not appear to be in it, but races of this kind are forever furnishing surprises. Besides the championship race and the fifty-mile event, there is to be a ride of ten miles behind motors between Walter Smith the schoolboy star and George Schoffeld, who is his nearest competitor.

There is no road event of importance on the programme for to-morrow. The follow-ing club runs are scheduled:

PROVIDENCE, July 26.—Will Stinson, who is to meet Johnny Nelson in a 25-mile motor paced race at the Colosseum next week, broke the world's record for the mile on a six-lap track at the Colosseum to-day, slicing off nearly three seconds of the best previous mark. Stinson made two attempts and was successful the second time, reeling off the mile in 1 minute 24 is seconds. The previous record was 1:37, made on the Baltimore six-lap track by Archie MacEachern last season. The mile ridden by Stinson was an official attempt and will be accepted by the racing board of the National Cycling Association, as all requirements were fulfilled. While a mile has been behind pace faster than the record made by Stinson, the performances were made on a six-lap track, while Stinson's was on a six-lap track, banked the same as an eight-lap track.

MORE SWIMMERS SUSPENDED.

Women Who Competed at Yorkville Baths Wore According to the strict interpretation of part in the competitions of the Yorkville Swimming Club at the Yorkville Baths on Thursday night are suspended. Miss Ethel Golding, Miss Lillie and Emma Koster, who competed in the race for women, are not registered athletes. The A. A. U. is no respector of persons, and as all those who compete where unregistered athletes race suspend themselves under the rules, many prominent swimmers are under the ban.

When this was brought to the attention of some of those involved the idea was expressed that they were not to blame, as the club received an A. A. U. sanction and the swimmers naturally thought that everything would be in accordance with the rules. This, however, is not the official view taken of the matter, as the union holds that it is the duty of every athlete to safeguard his own interest by seeing that a registration number is attached to every entry on the programme. The sex of the offenders will not affect the ruling in the case. Secretary Sullivan had his attention called to the fact that the women were billed to compete before he left for Buffalo on Thursday night. He said that provided they did so all the other competitions. Thursday night are suspended. Miss Ethel
